RE: More Insanity -- We Want Answers

Not only has NYSED Commissioner King issued absurd edicts to close Lafayette, East, Bennett and MLK, with others to come, but NYSED is now apparently demanding that the principal and staff at the schools not develop the turnaround plans for the school. Even if that changes, the principal and some of the teachers at the school, some of whom develop the plans, must be transferred.

From my previous correspondence to you (see www.btfny.org/News & Alerts, October 17, 2014) you know how absurd this is.

As a result, we have filed the attached demands for information as we move forward.

Stay tuned.
